

ADLER FLAG ON SULLIVAN HALL.

But the Real Adler, but still it's an Eye-sore to the Faultful.

Some time ago representatives of a social and benevolent organization of the lower East Side, known as Adler's Young Men, waited on the Hon. Flora Sullivan, the Tammany leader of "de Afie," and asked permission to string a banner across Grand street from the Florry Sullivan Association clubhouse announcing a picnic.

"Why certainly, my boys," said Florry, "I'd do you a favor."

The banner, which is a monster affair, was duly placed in position.

Across the top in letters a foot high appear the words "Adler's Young Men" over the words holding the banner is strung directly from the centre of the clubhouse door.

The banner hadn't been hanging long before people commenced to stop and remark, "Why, has Charlie Adler captured Tammany Hall?"

Assemblyman Charles S. Adler of the Eighth district, who has been a man in the side of Tammany Hall, has no connection with the Adler's Young Men, however.

"Say, she ain't right," said Cross Eyes, seated on the roof. "Hon. Florry the other night in his blockin' sit in der windows of der clubhouse and dems is dat sign right over our heads wat says we are Adler's young men. We ain't Adler's men. We are young men an' we don't want any old-timers hindin' us gettin' into the club, so let them business. It's a good idea. I can't help it," said Florry. "I'll give my word to those fellows in the club. Some of them are Dem-crats, too, and if I took it down they'd get sore."

A WOMAN'S TALE OF ASSAULT.

Attacked by Two Men in a Flat, She Says Didn't Appear to Prosecute.

Policeman Lenning of the West Forty-seventh street station was stopped on Eighth avenue at 10 o'clock Saturday night by a young woman who demanded the arrest of two young men who were with her. They had assaulted her in a flat on Eighth avenue, she said. Lenning took the entire party to the station house, where the men said they were William Lawson, living at the Roosevelt Hotel, and John Tracy of 151 Eighth avenue. The woman said that she was Ella Berne of 115 West Fifteenth street.

The woman's story to Policeman Lenning was that she had been staying temporarily in the apartment and had dined with them. Then Tracy, she said, offered to show her some pictures in his apartment on Eighth avenue. When she tried to leave she was gagged, she declared, and assaulted. Then, she and the agreed for $100 not to make trouble, and finally got out in her piano to 151. The men were on their way to the Roosevelt when they got the money when the arrests were made.

The woman didn't appear in the West Side police court yesterday morning when the prisoners were arraigned. Lenning had no complaint to make, so Magistrate Frazee dismissed the case.

The prisoners refused to say anything about the case, but the policeman said that they had told him that the woman had gone with them to the flat and had then tried to blackmail them. Tracy told the policeman that the woman gave him $50 diamond ring. Neither of the men could be found at the addresses they gave.
